Lia's Plans for the Week

May 2026

3 Sunday	4 Monday	5 Tuesday	6 Wednesday	7 Thursday	8 Friday	9 Saturday
My Birthday!	Example ★ ★	English	a day at the farm with my class	work with Grandpa at his shop	bike ride with Dad at 9:00 	family dinner at Aunt Ruth's

Someday

1 On Friday, in the kitchen,
we baked a chocolate cake –
my mom, my dad and I.
The best cake we could make!

2 "Mom, Dad, can we get a pet? 5
I'll call it Lucky," I said.
"It can sleep in a little basket*

right next to my bed."

3 Mom and Dad look at me,
and then Mom starts to say:
"Noa, think about it, dear –
a pet needs you every day!

4 It will chew our shoes and socks,
it will make a mess, it's true!"
That's what my parents think,
but I know what to do:

5 I'll walk it every morning,
I'll brush its soft brown hair,
I'll give it food and water
and take it everywhere.

6 We'll play ball in the park,
it will run and jump so high,
and when I come home from school,
it will wag its tail to say "Hi!"

7 But Mom and Dad still say,
"You're still too young this year."
So when I turn eleven,
I'll ask again, loud and clear.

8 And if they still say "No",
I'll cry a tear or two.
But I will always love them,
and they will love me too.

The Talking Machine | By Ron Miller

1 Thomas Alva Edison was born in 1847 in Ohio, in the USA. His father had a wood business, and his mother was a teacher.

2 When Thomas was a young boy, he started school, but he had problems there. His teacher thought that he could not learn. His mother was angry, so she took him out of school and taught him at home. Thomas loved to read about science. At the age of 12, he got a job selling newspapers on trains, and he even did experiments in an empty train car!

3 In 1876 Edison moved to Menlo Park, a small town in New Jersey, to build a big lab* for his inventions. There he had an idea for a machine that could keep sounds and play them again. Edison drew the machine on paper, and John Kruesi, a machine builder in the lab, made it. In December 1877 the machine was ready. Edison turned the handle and said a short children's poem into it: "Mary had a little lamb." Then he turned the handle again, and the two men heard Edison's words come out of the machine. It worked! Edison called his machine the phonograph.

4 Soon newspapers all over the USA wrote about the "talking machine", and many people came to Menlo Park to hear it. In 1878 Edison even showed it to the President of the USA. Today we can listen to recorded sounds and music everywhere. It is the most wonderful invention in the world.

Did you know?

For most of his life, Edison could not hear well.
