REAL GRASS OR PLASTIC GRASS*

- I 1 Botley is a small town near New York, USA. Only 2,000 people live there. Botley has a school, a supermarket and a restaurant. But it does not have a park where families can have picnics and where children can play. So the people in Botley are building a park in their town.
- II 5 Jim Scott lives in Botley and loves to work in gardens. He is helping to make the new park. Jim already put flowers and plants in the park. Now he wants to put grass there. But there are two types of grass, and Jim must decide which type of grass to use.
- III One type of grass is real grass. "Real grass has some problems," explains Jim. "It needs a lot of water, and someone must cut it every week." The other type of grass is plastic grass.
- 10 Of course, plastic grass never needs any water.
- IV But plastic grass also has a problem. It is not soft like real grass. When children fall on it, they can get hurt*. "I don't want children to get hurt," says Jim. "So I want to put real grass in our park."

ARTISTS MAKE SCULPTURES ON A BEACH

A sculpture from sand

- I 1 Every year, artists travel from many different countries to a beach in Port Aransas, USA. They go there for a special competition. In this competition, artists make very large sculptures from sand. Some of the sculptures look like* animals or interesting buildings. Others look like famous people. The artist who makes the best sculpture wins 2,000 dollars.
- II 5 On most beaches in the world, it is not possible to make very large sculptures from sand. On those beaches, you can make only small sculptures. However, the beach in Port Aransas is different from most beaches. It has special sand. The artists at the competition need this special sand to build their large sculptures.
- III The first competition in Port Aransas was in 1997. That year, only a few people went to 10 see the sculptures. But now the competition is very popular. Last year, 100,000 visitors went to look at the sculptures.
- IV Kevin Turner, an artist from Canada, was at the competition last year. "I made a sculpture that looked like a horse," says Turner. "It wasn't a very good sculpture, but I had a lot of fun."
